The investor is about to purchase a product that is not simple and may be difficult to understand.

1. What is this product?

Type

This product is a Swiss Uncertificated Security under Swiss law.

Term

The term of the product ends on the Redemption Date, unless the product has been terminated early.

Objectives

Objective of the product is to provide the investor with a specified entitlement according to predefined conditions. This product offers the investor a Coupon Rate regardless of the performance of the Underlyings during the lifetime. The possibilities for the redemption of the product are as follows:

- If a Barrier Event has NOT occurred, the Investor will receive the Denomination.
- If a Barrier Event has occurred, the Investor will receive a round number (i.e. Conversion Ratio) of the Underlying with the Worst Performance per Product. Any potential fractional Conversion Ratio entitlements (Fractions of the Underlying) will be paid in cash, based on the Final Fixing Level.

A Barrier Event shall be deemed to occur if at least one of the Underlyings' Final Fixing Levels is at or below the respective Barrier Level.

The investor might incur a loss in case the sum of the value of the delivered shares on the Redemption Date, the Fractions of the Underlying and the coupon payment is below the purchase price of the product. Different from a direct investment in the Underlyings, the investor will not receive any dividend payments nor any further entitlements resulting from the Underlyings (e.g. voting rights).

The product terms provide that if certain exceptional events occur (1) adjustments may be made to the product and/or (2) the Issuer of the product may terminate the product early. These events are specified in the product terms and principally relate to the Underlying(s), the product and the Issuer of the product. For instance, these exceptional events are including but not exclusively limited to the cessation of an Underlying, tax events and the discontinuation of the Issuer's ability to carry out the necessary hedging transactions. In the event of termination, the redemption amount may possibly be significantly below the purchase price. Even a total loss of the investment is possible. The investor also bears the risk that the product will be terminated at an unfavourable point in time and the investor might only be able to reinvest the redemption amount on less favorable terms.

2. What are the risks and what could the investor get in return?

Risk Indicator

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because the Issuer is not able to pay the investor.

We have classified this product as 6 out of 7, which is the second-highest risk class.

This rates the potential losses from future performance at a high level, and poor market conditions are very unlikely to impact the capacity of the Issuer to pay the investor of the product.

The investor shall be aware of currency risk. If the investor receives payments in a different currency, the final return that the investor gets will depend on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so the investor could lose some or all of its investment.

In the case of delivery of the Underlying price losses may arise even after the Final Fixing Date until the Underlying is credited to the investors securities account.

If the Issuer is not able to redeem the investor what is owed, the investor could lose the entire investment.

For detailed information about all risks please refer to the risk sections of the legal documentation as specified in the section 'Other relevant information' below.

The scenarios shown represent possible outcomes calculated based on simulations.

This product cannot be easily cashed in. If the investor exits the investment earlier than the recommended holding period the investor may have to pay extra costs.

3. What happens if the Issuer is unable to pay out?

The obligations of the Issuer under this product are guaranteed by a first demand guarantee of EFG International AG, Zurich, governed by Swiss law, which protects investors in case the Issuer is unable to fulfil its obligations under the product. A total loss of the investor's capital invested is possible if both the Issuer and the Guarantor are unable to fulfil their obligations in respect of the product and the guarantee, respectively. The product is a debt instrument and as such is not covered by any deposit protection scheme.

4. What are the costs?

The person advising the investor on the product or selling this product to the investor may charge the investor other costs. If so, this person will provide the investor with information about these costs and how they affect the investor's investment.

Cost over time

The tables show the amounts that are taken from the investor's investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much the investor invests, how long the investor holds the product and how well the product does. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different possible investment periods.

We have assumed:

- In the first year the investor would get back the amount that the investor invested (0 % annual return). For the other holding periods we have assumed the product performs as shown in the moderate scenario.
- USD 10 000 is invested

	If the investor exits after the recommended holding period

These figures include the maximum distribution fee that the person selling the investor the product may charge: (2.0 % of amount invested/USD 200).

This person will inform the investor of the actual distribution fee.

5. How long should the investor hold it and can the investor take money out early?

Recommended holding period: 17/01/2024 (until Redemption Date)

The objective of the product is to provide the investor with the redemption profile described under "1. What is this product?" above. This only applies if the product is held until maturity.

There are no possibilities to take the investor's money out early other than to sell the product off-exchange.

Under normal market conditions, the price at which the investor may sell the product will depend on the market parameters prevailing at the time, which could put the invested amount at risk.

In unusual market situations, or in the event of technical faults/disruptions, a purchase and/or sale of the product can be temporarily hindered, or may not be possible at all.
